Inoperative Laws. The Legislature of this State, at its first session, re-enacted all the laws passed by the Territorial Legislature, so ar as they were applicable to the change from a Territorial to a State organization. From time to time the State Legislature has repealed acts of the Territorial Legislature, but all not so repealed are as much in force now as they were under the Territorial Government. Our object at this time is to call attention to two of such acts, which have been for many years wholly inoperative, simply because nobody cared, until quite recently, to enforce them. The first of these is "An Act for the Better Observance of the Lord's Day,"approved November 21, 1861. [See p. 39, Laws of Nevada Territory.] Section 1 of this Act declares that no person shall keep open any playthat no person shall keep open any play-house or theater, race-ground, cock-pit, or play at any game of chance for gain, or engage in any noisy amusement, on the first day of the week, commonly called Lord's day. Section 3 puts the penalty at not less than $30 nor more than $250 for each offense. Section 5 re-quires the offender to give bonds in not less than $500 for his good behavior dur-ing any time within the discretion of the Court, and to stand committed till the order is complied with and the fine paid. An attempt to enfore the foregoing An attempt to enfore the foregoin act has recently been made in Virginia but with what success we are at present uninformed. We shall watch the proceedings with some interest.

ANTI-GAMBLING. The other law to which we refer is entitled "An Act to Probibit Gambling," approved Nov. 25, 1861. [See p. 53, Laws of Nevada Territory.] Section 1 of this Act provides that every person who shall deal, play, carry on, open, or cause to be opened, or who shall conduct either as owner or employe, whether for hire or not, any game of faro, monte, etc., shall be guilty of felony, and subect to two years imprisonment and a not exceeding $5,000.

Notwithstanding the act of the State Legislature to license gambling, it does not operate so as to repeal the prohibiting act. Under the decision of our Supreme Court, in the case of Russell Scott vs. Morgan Courtney, on appeal from the District Court of this county, a majority decided (Justice Garber dismajority decided (classics transfer dis-senting) that the license only operated as a protection against the penalties in-flicted by law for gambling. Hence, where one persues the business of gamb-ling, without first procuring a license, he is liable to prosecution pursuant to the provisions of the Territorial act. Prosecutions under this or the preceding act have not been of frequent occurrence in this State.

FOR CALIFORNIA.—Yesterday morning couple of urchins went up the hill back of our printing establishment, probably with a view of taking meterological observations. Whilst there a large "yaller" dog came in their way, and as he made no offensive demonstrations, they, with the true spirit of young Piochers, made friends with him, and then taking advantage of his innocent then taking advantage of his innocent confidedce, tied an oyster can to his tail, and placing a number of pieces of broken glass in the can and closing it up, gave a premile war-whoop that echoed loudly from the surrounding hills. The dog started in the direction of San Francisco Bay, on a slow trot. The jingling burden of his tail, however, incited him to mend his pace, and when last seen he was going in a straight line over the top of a bluff of rocks at a rate which was simply terrific. He will arrive in San simply terrific the will arrive in San simply terrific. He will arrive in San Francisco, we should judge, about two days before this paper reaches the me-tropolis of the Pacific coast.

SMOKE.—Yesterday morning about 2 "clock, those who passed along Lacour street could see by the dim lights of Chinatown a dense smoke. The sense of smell was also greeted by the odor of burning wood, which, mingled with the other odors that rise from that celestal place, was wafted westward on the breeze. The precise spot whence the smoke came could not be found; and as no unusual noises were heard among the Johns it was concluded that all was serene in their

JUST OPENED.-Ike Phillips has just spread before the people of Pioche an assortment of groceries and provisions which cannot be excelled in quality by any establishment in town or sold cheap-er. The bar is supplied with the choicest wines and liquors, and a first-class lunch is spread out before the patrons of the house at all hours.

THANKSGIVING BALL.—The Odd Fellows' are to celebrate Thanksgiving Day with a ball. Brown's Hall is the place chosen, and it will be prepared for the occasion in a befitting style. We have every reason to believe that the ball will be given in good style. Ball-goers will look forward with pleasure to the 27th of Navannes.

MEAGHER GUARD .- A meeting of the company is to be held this evening, as per advertisement. In this connection we are requested to say that the company will on the 7th of next month have a target excursion and a ball on the same passed without bringing in their train of events a single fight. This will never do. If things continue in such a man-ner, the Police Court will have to be closed up, and all the officers discharged.

FIRE. - By reference to our telegraphic dispatches it will be seen that a destructive fire occurred at Washburn's station, between this place and Hamilton. Among other property, the stables of Travis & Co. were burned.

NEVADA STATE ITEMS. Curry, which occurred at Carson at 4 o'clock Sunday morning, we gather the following: He was a native of the State of New York, and at the time of his death was about 59 years of age. Our first knowledge of his career in the Atlantic States commences at Ordensham. FROM the Gold Hill News' lengthy first knowledge of his career in the At-lantic States commences at Ogdensburg, New York. He left Ogdensburg in 1830; we next heard of him in Buffalo, where he was engaged extensively in the ship-ping business. He arrived in California about the year 1850, and resided succes-sively at Grass Valley, Red Rock and Downieville; he arrived at the last named place some time in '55. blessed with litplace some time in '55, blessed with lit-tle or none of this world's goods. In a short time, however, owing to his re-markable energy and business capacity, he acquired a large property; he was the builder of the Downieville theatre, and These who can make up their minds to climb Spring Mountain, or any of the social surrounding the town, to feel the cool evening air, may be amply repaid for their puins by the sight of a most beautiful sunset, if they have an eye for the beautiful.

Police Court.—Three days have passed without bringing in their train of events a single fight. This will never do. If things continue in such a manner, the Police Court will have the sight of the Downieville theatre, and builder of the Saints were living in comfotable log houses, and had erected a rude taberna-cle as a place of worship. At that time there was a small Mormon settlement at what is now Carson City. In consewhat is now Carson City. In consequence of the demonstration made upon Salt Lake City by the United States forces under command of General Johnson, in 1857, Brigham Young called in the Mormons living in the valley. They departed in great haste, disposing of their property for a small consideration.

The explorers were delighted, with the appearance of the country. Accordingly Colonel Curry, Colonel Musser and Frank Proctor purchased a ranch comprising nearly the whole of the valley, for $800.

Major Ormsby was residing at Genoa at that time. Col. Curry was a prominent member of the Masonic fraternity, was connected with the Carson Fire Department and was the founder of the organization known as the Improved Order of Red Men, and at the time of his death was Great Vice Incohone of the State of Nevada, and a member of Piute Tribe

THE Eureka Sentinel, of Wednesday, gives a condensed statement of the annual report of the Secretary of the Eu reka Consolidated Mining Company, from which it appears that the cost of extracting and hauling 25,692 tons of ore was $387,450, or $11.18 per ton, and the cost of smelting 26,155 tons of ore was $480,527, or $18.37 per ton. The reduction of 25,155 tons of ore produced 3,227 tons base bullion, or 8.04 tons ore to 1 ton base bullion, the cost of producing the latter averaging $237.66, while the transportation and refining charges are bout $78 more.

THE Chronicle, of Monday last, referring to the Sutro Tupnel, says: The length of the main header is now 4,506 feet, 25 feet having been added thereto during the past week. In the east drift from shaft No. 1 20 feet were made, and 20 in the west drift. This leaves 73 feet to be excavated before the connection will be made at the east end. Eight feet were sunk at No. 2, making the total days 1, 24, feet. depth 743 feet. The water is nearly out of shaft No. 3. Nine feet were sunk at shaft No. 4, making the depth to date

THE gentlemen who circulated the petition for a town government, yesterday, says the Sentinel, of the 22d, met with excellent success. Only three men re-fused to sign the petition out of nearly three hundred solicited. The proposi-tion meets with almost universal favor, and there can be no question that the requisite number of signatures will be secured without difficulty. ocured without difficulty.

Wz have heard nothing of the case of Finney, the alleged accomplice of Matheney in the Green murder. It will be remembered, says the Sentinel, of Wednesday, that the Grand Jury of White Pine some time since deferred the further consideration of his case till Monday the 22d inst. If anything was done in the premises at that time, we have not been advised of the fact.

W. L. Pritchard shipped yesterday for the Hoosac 65,000 pounds; for the Ruby Consolidated, 65,000 pounds; for the Richmond, 48,000 pounds; and for the Eureka Consolidated, 40,000 pounds. Total, 218,000 pounds. So says the Eu-
